Royal Holloway is one of the UK's leading research intensive universities. Our academic staff work at the frontiers of their specialist areas on original research. We offer high quality facilities, on and near our beautiful 135 acre campus, with the added benefit of a central London base.

We offer a wide range of accommodation for postgraduate students in our halls, from shared flats to townhouses and all are comfortable and good value for money. We are sometimes able to offer additional rooms for postgraduates in halls not featured in this booklet. Visit our website for the latest information on available accommodation as well as details on let lengths and prices. royalholloway.ac.uk/accommodation

George Eliot

Set within mature trees, green areas and sheltered paths, these modern townhouses offer more space for relaxing and socialising and contain a lounge area and kitchen. Each townhouse contains two bathrooms per landing so you'll share with just one other student.

Living in London

If your degree programme or research involves work in London you may prefer to live more centrally. Royal Holloway has a small number of rooms for postgraduates in Intercollegiate Halls of Residence in central London, which are issued on a first-come first-served basis.

The University of London Housing Services Office offers assistance to those looking for accommodation in London. Further information can be found at housing.lon.ac.uk

Living off campus

Some postgraduate students choose to live near campus in private sector accommodation available in the local area, from Englefield Green, Egham and Staines to Virginia Water, Ashford and Windsor. You'll need to consider the requirements of your study programme and the commute, but help is at hand to establish where you choose to settle. The Students' Union runs HouseSearch, where you can find properties in the local area. You can also find advice and information at royalholloway.ac.uk/privatehousing

Applying for halls

Applying online is quick and easy. You'll need to apply for accommodation by the deadlines published on our website.
